Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Community Study: Parish of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church Brooklyn, New York The report of the Community Study of the Parish of the Clinton Avenue Congregational Church, which is herewith presented, is a composite production. Rev. Henry A. Atkinson, Secretary of the Social Service Commission of the National Council of Congregational Churches, outlined and guided the work. The writer had the privilege of co-operating with him. Together with them, a committee of seventeen volunteers from the church have prepared this report. If there is anything distinctive in it, it is the fact that practically all of what we publish has been written by members of this volunteer committee, based upon their own investigations, and establishing the fact that such investigation can be made by any church. In this connection it may be said that the actual cost of the survey to the church, exclusive of the printing of this report, was about one hundred and forty dollars. The tasks which this survey has set for Clinton Avenue Congregational Church are many and great, but in the three months that have elapsed since the report was presented, enough has been accomplished to make it evident that the effort was well worth while. We have endeavored to be as accurate as possible in the collecting and compiling of statistics and yet at the same time can claim only an approximation of exactness. We have plotted our maps by blocks, not by the exact location of individual cases. We have included, in so far as possible, recommendations which were made by the individuals who wrote the reports, which in some instances, do not entirely accord with the recommendations...
