Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ralph Slaske is an author and entrepreneur who has always been committed to the free exchange of ideas among industry peers. In his role as the owner of Slaske Building Company and Perrysburg Kitchens and More, Mr. Slaske is able to offer his clients a truly comprehensive experience when it comes to building a custom home. Known throughout the Northwest Ohio region for his attention to detail and his commitment to a client-oriented approach, Mr. Slaske has developed a reputation for designing and building custom homes that are truly unique and are always of the highest quality. A graduate of the University of Toledo with a degree in engineering, Mr. Slaske began his professional career as an engineer and project manager before founding his custom homebuilding business. With over a decade of corporate experience and over a decade more as a custom homebuilder, Mr. Slaske has quite a unique perspective as a result of his varied academic and professional background. It is this perspective that has helped him recognize the many opportunities afforded by his particular skillset, and...
