(Conversations that took place in Hindi and are recorded as such in italics, immediately followed by a translation in English. Readers familiar with Hindi might find it rewarding to read through the original Hindi conversations. Others can conveniently skip them. In Hindi as in many Asian languages, different terms are used for addressing or referring to persons of higher or lower social status or degree of familiarity with the speaker. Thus, in place of the universal you in English, one would use aap to address a stranger or person of higher status, tum for a friend or person of equal status and tu only to address persons of much lower status or for someone very close or intimate.) One day, there was a condom malfunction. Some of Shyam s virile semen seeped into Renu s fertile womb and, to cut a long story short, Renu missed her period. Women in Renu s maternal line were prone to severe nausea and vomiting during pregnancy and Renu had also unfortunately inherited...
