Flash McKinley and the Mystery of Rosewood Cottage (Paperback)

By Rosemary Showell

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Matthew McKellar (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a story of a rite of passage for three young boys, who have to step up and be counted as young men, when Flash's seven-year-old sister Molly is stolen by a Phooka called Buuldic, a dark faerie of Celtic mythology, who spirits Molly away and leaves a changeling in her place. Flash is ten, nearly eleven years old and has moved from the city with his parents, his sister Molly and his baby brother Cameron, to live in Rosewood Cottage, on the edge of ancient woodland. Unfortunately these woods belong to the faeries. Flash has made two friends at his new school and the boys spend the summer building a den in the woods. Molly tags along and the children have fun, until the day Molly goes missing. While searching for Molly the boys meet a wood nymph called Laeonyla who tells them what has happened to Molly. With the help of Laeonyla and her people, the boys set off on an adventure, which takes them into a world of...
