Annis Ward Jackson sets this novel against a backdrop of beautiful Watauga Lake in the mountains of eastern Tennessee. Violet Thurston Oliver is a descendant of pioneers and has no intention of ever vacating the land that has been in her family for nearly two hundred years. However, Violet discovers that so-called progress grinds on with little concern for personal attachments. Proud, stoic, and self-sufficient, Violet withstands an abusive marriage and forced relocation from her beloved farm in the late 1940s when the Tennessee Valley Authority covered over six thousand acres with a dam to provide electricity and recreational opportunities. The lake has been Violet's sorrow and her salvation. Will Violet's fifty-year-old secret remain safe or will it rise from the depths and threaten the remaining years of a life of hard work, integrity and perseverance? Fast forward to 1995 and Sheriff Floyd Lawrence who is faced with slowing down his search for other, more pressing crimes, to investigating a cold case so obscure that he is tempted to give up. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that I am sure that I will go on to read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
