Have I got a Little Sister anywhere in this house? inquired Laddie at the door, in his most coaxing voice. Yes sir, I answered, dropping the trousers I was making for Hezekiah, my pet bluejay, and running as fast as I could. There was no telling what minute May might take it into her head that she was a little sister and reach him first. Maybe he wanted me to do something for him, and I loved to wait on Laddie. Ask mother if you may go with me a while. Mother doesn t care where I am, if I come when the supper bell rings. All right! said Laddie. He led the way around the house, sat on the front step and took me between his knees. Oh, is it going to be a secret? I cried. Secrets with Laddie were the greatest joy in life. He was so big and so handsome. He was so much nicer than any one else in our family, or among our friends, that to share his secrets, run his...
