

Decentralized Governance And Panchayati Raj

By K.K. Srivastava

2011. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 280
Decentralization has been reviewed as an instrument for meeting aspirations of local people in all over world In pre-independence period of India Lord Mayo was the pioneer who incorporated decentralization formula in British Raj India has embarked on decentralization process after independence So many experiences were made for the decentralization after 1950 to 1993 The 73rd and 74th Constitutional Amendments in 1992-93 have ushered in the present phase where panchayats are described as institutions of local self-government and are expected to prepare plans for economic development and social justice Though the Constitution Amendment is considered a landmark of all sorts for strengthening the Panchayati Raj Institutions yet as reflected from the point of view of people's participation nor from the perspective of capacity of Panchayati Raj institutions to deliver in the rural areas does the Act prove to be effective Under the given state of socio-economic and political disparities and the poor capacity of the panchayats to deliver reforms are very critically required It requires initiatives for reducing inequalities making basic services available to people and enhancing the access for opportunities Reforms should be focused on fundamentals like mobilizing people responsiveness to the aspiration of various...
