Mr. Sandburg gives us his own estimates of many other figures, big and little, of the period, but not of Abraham Lincoln. He indulges in no speculation as to what was going on within the heart and soul and mind of this peculiar man. If there is anything lacking in The War Years, it is the presence of two men of the prairie years, Joshua Speed and William H. Herndon, who saw more deeply into Lincoln than did any others who ever knew him. When Lincoln stepped into the White House he stepped into a great isolation which no one - not even his old friends, Browning and Lamon, nor his secretaries, Nico lay and Hay - seems to have penetrated. In the analyses of his character provided by those who observed him at closest range the word unfathomable...
