Guenon himself arrived in Paris. Called here on business of a private nature, he readily set aside everything to place himself at the disposal of your honorable body. After many disappointments, he came to ask of you a public expression of your approbation, and of the country, on exhibition of national gratitude for a discovery surrendered without reserve to the common good, when he might have kept his secret to himself, with its certain emoluments. A just love of celebrity, perhaps even the vague hope of a recompense proportioned to the service he had rendered the country, brought him to your bar, and placed him under your patronage. It was immediately decided that a committee should accompany him to some dairy, and there apply and demonstrate the principles he has promulgated. If a decisive test confirmed all that you were led to expect, it became you, gentlemen, to give from this spot - the great centre of knowledge - a striking consecration, too long desired, of Mr. Guenon s singular discovery. The farmer exercises an art essentially practical, and will not reject an obviously useful process because he may not appear to understand it. His science is that of...
